

DEGREED PARTNER PROGRAM

About Degreed

We have entered a world where we learn from a diversity of sources over the entirety of our careers. Continuous learning and re-skilling have become economic imperatives for individuals and organizations seeking a competitive advantage. Degreed is the lifelong learning platform that allows people to discover, build, and measure the skills they need for the job they have and the careers they aspire to. We do this while aligning to the organizational initiatives that drive business strategy.

Partner with Us

Today's ever-changing labor markets are continuously creating demand for new skills. As business strategies change, individual skillsets must adapt and grow in order to impact the business. Our mission is to help every enterprise meet the challenges of this new reality by enabling the next generation of the world's expertise. Degreed's global channel partner and alliance programs are an integral part of our mission and a core avenue to all segments of the commercial and public sector, as well as consumer markets.

We seek partnerships with like-minded organizations to join us on this journey. Partnering with us will your revenue growth, increase your market share, and strategically differentiate your business while helping to equip and enable the new world of career-long learning.

Partner Support

Degreed offers unparalleled support to ensure your partnership with us is a success. With dedicated Business Development, Channel Solutions, Engineering, and Consulting teams, we work with you to understand your company's goals, business objectives, and available resources to support our partnership. Degreed then provides tailored resources to help you market, sell, and support our joined solution; ensuring that our mutual goals are achieved along the way.

Degreed Onboarding Pathway

Degreed provides you with our Degreed Onboarding Pathway that features tools you can use including videos, brochures, reference guides, presentations, and more. Maintained by our team of experts, resources are continuously being created and made available to support your program. Tailored to support your business challenges and available 24/7/365, these resources are aligned to initiatives such as marketing, sales, leadership, client support, and technical needs.

“At Alexander Forbes, we are focused on helping our clients secure a lifetime of financial well-being. To achieve this we need to connect with our clients throughout the various stages of their lives and our research has shown that enabling personal growth is a key building block for financial well-being.

Our partnership with Degreed has enabled us to make this connection with our clients, enabling career growth and skills development. The innovative online learning solution has differentiated how we engage with our clients, empowering them to achieve better outcomes through developing a lifelong relationship with education and learning.”
